

NO! Reject the BPL request. BPL interference with amateur radio will endanger lives and property, namely, those saved annually by the free volunteer efforts of amateur radio operators. Does the FCC really want to be responsible for destroying this valuable volunteer service?